INCOME FROM SCHOOL SALES AND SERVICES

The services provided through school shops and laboratories and products offered for sale through school programs shall not be considered income producers for the school district. Customers shall be charged on the basis of material used, any parts used, and the incidental cost of providing the product or service. The instructor in charge of the particular program or shop shall be responsible for setting prices or charges.

The building administrator through the immediate supervisor shall be responsible to establish an accounting procedure.