SCHOOL DAY

The school day shall at least meet the minimum length of time prescribed by the State Department of Education. The length of day and arrangement of time segments within the day may vary from school to school. The schedule shall be such that each student is given a practical opportunity to attain maximum growth; physical, mental and emotional.

In setting school hours, consideration shall be given to the following:

A. all activities are with guidance and supervision,
B. there is opportunity for individual attention by the staff outside of regular scheduled class time,
C. the cost of transportation is not increased significantly.

Within the guidelines of this policy the hours of a school day shall be established by the Superintendent of Schools.

The building principal will plan working schedules for those personnel assigned to their building.
