SUMMER ACTIVITIES

The Salem School Board recognizes that student learning is an ongoing process and that it is important for students to engage in learning activities even when not attending school. The Board encourages administrators, faculty and staff to recommend or provide suitable resources that facilitate the continuation and reinforcement of learning and content. Such activities may include a summer book reading list, attending an education-themed summer camp, engaging in alternative learning opportunities, or other activities that support ongoing learning.