STUDENT SEARCHES AND THEIR PROPERTY

The right to inspect a student locker or articles carried upon their persons is inherent in the authority granted to schools. However, inspection or search of lockers and/or personals shall be used sparingly and only when there is a reasonable basis for believing the student is concealing material prohibited by federal, state, or local law.

Lockers are subject to inspection and cleaning out shortly after the close of a school year.