The district shall maintain a record of information necessary to provide for the safety and care of students in the event of an emergency. The record is to be maintained at the school building where a student is in attendance. An effort to keep the record accurate and current is essential.