SCHOOL COMMUNITY RELATIONS GOALS

The school board shall interpret the educational programs and needs to the community and invite discussion and/or suggestions on important educational policies. The school board shall at all times endeavor to represent the entire community.

The school board recognizes the public schools belong to the people who created and now support them and the people can best participate in the exercise of their prerogative if they have knowledge and understanding of the aims and efforts of the public schools.

The board’s interest is:

1. To keep citizens regularly informed on the policies, programs, and planning of the school district.
2. To invite assistance and cooperation in the development of educational programs and facilities.
3. To determine how the citizens feel about the school system and what they wish it to accomplish.
4. To promote a spirit of cooperation between the school board and the community leaders.
