FEDERAL EDUCATION AGENCY RELATIONS

The school board recognizes the potential gains to the district if personnel are aware of the resources and services of such federal agencies as the National Institute for Education and the ERIC Clearing Houses.

The Superintendent of Schools is encouraged to provide information on these, and other federal programs to the staff.