Composing and Designing: Action Words

Use the spaces on this page to reflect action words or verbs. Write down an action word of your choice underneath one of the empty spaces, and then create an abstract design that best reflects that word. Use scratch paper first to work out the components of your design. Color your design to reflect the temperament of your word. Examples of action words include: running, rolling, snoring, eating, blowing, sweeping, and embracing.