What is NAMI?

NAMI stands for National Alliance on Mental Health. It is a grassroots non-profit organization which strives to improve the lives of those affected by mental illness. As the largest mental health organization, NAMI is the nation’s leading voice on the issue. The organization relies on gifts and contributions to educate, advocate, listen, and lead.