Wilkins Weekly 3-31-19

- Mother-Son Fun is on Friday night from 6-7:30 in the gym. Sign-ups were due last week, but we’ll accept them on Monday. Looking forward to a great night! Thank you to those who have signed up to help.
- Our Thank You, Volunteers assembly will be held Monday, April 8th at 9:15. Thank you to those volunteers who have let us know they are attending. We do have small tokens of our appreciation to give out, and to ensure we have enough, please let us know if you are able to attend.
- Wednesday all K, I, and 2 students will be attending a performance of Henry and Mudge at Salem’s PAC along with other Salem schools. We are looking forward to this, but need your help. Because of the large number of children, we are asking all NS attendees to wear Panther or BLUE shirts so we can eyeball all of our students more easily. Thank you for remembering this for Wednesday. A REMINDER THAT THERE IS NO PM KINDERGARTEN ON WEDNESDAY – students will be coming in the morning session to see the play.
- Friday morning our 5th grade students will be attending the Salem PAC with all district 5th graders to see Woodbury’s performance of James and the Giant Peach - based on a beloved book by Roald Dahl.
- Tuesday, April 2nd is Autism Awareness Day, a day symbolized by the color blue. Given the BLUE-REQUEST for Wednesday above we are going to celebrate ALL of our DIFFERENCES on Friday the 5th - by including BLUE in our “Mismatch” spirit day. (Time to wash blue shirts!) Each teacher will do a read aloud with their students on the theme of celebrating and respecting our differences. After all, as we know, GREAT MINDS DON’T ALWAYS THINK ALIKE!
- If you are doing any spring cleaning, we’ll take donations of gently used books for our annual used book sale, held during our Spring Open House on Thursday, April 18th.
- Grandparents’ Day is the 19th. A schedule will soon be coming out.
- PTA is still seeking individuals to step forward to help ensure that we have the people needed to allow us to continue offering all that we have been able to do in the past. How can you do your part?
- A reminder that the dress rehearsal for the Talent Show is Thursday afternoon, and the performance Tuesday, April 9th at the Salem PAC. PTA Wednesday the 10th. Planned early dismissal the 11th.
